Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort Remains Staffed and Open

Training and property enhancements underway for heightened guest experience

EAGLE BEACH, Aruba – April 2, 2020 – Bucuti & Tara Beach Resort in Aruba remains open for guests and is preparing for new ones. Having successfully rebounded from several past events, including the resort’s grand opening on Black Monday in 1987, the famed Eagle Beach resort once again prepares to spring back and welcome guests as well as future reservations.

Staffed and Open

Owner/CEO Ewald Biemans and his Bucuti associates are using this time productively with remodeling, renovating, refreshing and deep cleaning the resort. Every department head is executing a complete plan to utilize the quiet time to revitalize and to implement additional training to further enhance the property and experience.

Optimistically preparing to return to their normally full house of guests, the Bucuti & Tara team are enthusiastically moving forward with projects designed to delight the returning honeymooners and couples looking for the adults-only peace and tranquility the resort is recognized for. At a time when health is particularly paramount, returning guests will enjoy Bucuti’s evolving wellness program complete with options within fitness, nutrition and mental wellbeing.

“We appreciate the owner’s confident approach to this current situation by maintaining employment for our team with positive projects and investments,” states Resort Manager Rik van der Berg. “It is uplifting to both our Bucuti & Tara family and our Aruban community”

Bucuti & Tara’s ongoing commitment to sustainability and wellness is evident in its extensive technology supporting clean and healthy accommodations. Outfitted with individual HEPA air filters and dehumidifiers, guests breathe the purest air. HAACP and ISO certifications assure guests along with staff that cleanliness guidelines are paramount. Recent accolades – certified CarbonNeutral®, LEED Gold certification and Travel + Leisure magazine’s 2020 Global Vision Award – celebrate Bucuti’s success in providing the highest standards in a hotel environment.

Accepting Reservations

For guests who cannot travel in the near future can still make future reservations online, by calling our reservations team or through their preferred travel professional.

Bucuti Comes to its Guests - Virtually

Bucuti & Tara is also coming to guests and followers spanning the globe – virtually. On March 18, 2020, this special social media outreach launched with special hashtag, #BringingBucutiToYou. With Bucuti’s vast following of loyal guests, the resort team wanted to connect with them and bring them a little piece of paradise until they could once again visit in person.

Ewald Biemans launched the first video post to instant success. Comments and likes continue pouring in and every few days more video posts are added. From swaying palm trees, powdery sand and soothing ocean views, to staff keeping beer chilled and even check-ups on the first Leatherneck sea turtle nest on the beach this season, these videos are a welcomed reprieve from the serious news of the day.
